Author Biography

Madeleine L'Engle

Madeleine L'Engle was born November 29th, 1918 in New York City. Even as a young girl she preferred writing stories and poems to doing her school work. At the age of 12 she and her family moved to the French Alps where she attended an English boarding school. A few years later she attended Smith College, continuing her passion for writing by studying English. After graduation she moved to Greenwich Village to work in the theater. During this time she saw her first two novels published. Here she also met her future husband, Hugh Franklin. Madeleine and Hugh had three children.

Madeleine wrote more than 60 books during her illustrious writing career, the most famous being the award-winning, A Wrinkle in Time. Sadly, she passed away in 2007.

"We can't take any credit for our talents. It's how we use them that counts."

Questions

1. Describe the atmosphere presented in the opening few paragraphs of the novel. How is the author able to create such an atmosphere?

2. The setting of a story includes not only where but when the story takes place. What is the setting of the story in Chapter One?

3. Every good story involves a crisis. Describe a specific crisis faced by Meg in this chapter.

4. How did Meg's father know that she wasn't dumb?

5. Describe your impression of Meg's brother, Charles Wallace, when you first meet him in the Murry kitchen.

6. What special "gift" did Charles Wallace have when it came to his mother and Meg?

7. Match each of the following characters from Chapter One with the correct descriptor [Careful: some characteristics may fit more than one person, but all must find a home.]

Meg
Mrs. Murry
Charles Wallace
Mrs. Whatsit
Dennys
Mr. Murry

- learned to talk at age 4
- was full of bad feeling
- 10 years old
- understanding, kind and wise
- nothing ruffled the serenity of this person's expression
- wild nights were this character's glory

8. Where did Charles Wallace discover that Mrs. Whatsit and her two friends were living?

9. When Mrs. Whatsit dropped in at the Murry house, what startling piece of information did she convey to Mrs. Murry?

Language Activities

A. The Tesseract

The revelation by Mrs. Whatsit regarding the tesseract leaves the readers wondering why such a revelation would cause Mrs. Murry so much anxiety. Using resources in your school library or the Internet, do an investigation of the tesseract. Record your information below.

B. Define cliffhanger:

Why might Chapter One be considered to end as a cliffhanger?

C. Alliteration

The author seems to enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same consonant sound at the beginning of several words in close succession. The following is an example from Chapter One: “It was his mother's mind, and Meg's...” Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of 3 words.

The sound of a Ferris wheel -
A raven's call -

D. A quintet is a five-line verse that tells a story. The quintet has a syllable pattern and can bring an exciting scene to life. (It doesn't have to rhyme.)

Line 1 – tells when , 3 syllables Line 2 – tells where , 5 syllables Line 3 – tells what , 7 syllables Line 4 – describes activity , 9 syllables Line 5 – contains a thought , 3 syllables.	Now create a quintet poem using ideas from recent events in A Wrinkle in Time .

Extension Activity

A Comic Strip _____

This activity is especially for students with an artistic flair or who love comic books! It can be done for any event up to this point in the story. The first step is to decide on the length of your comic strip (6 to 9 frames is suggested); next consider what events you will include. You may wish to highlight a brief incident. A quick sketch of the comic strip can first be accomplished in a storyboard format before a final, good copy is attempted. The strip should include a title, dialogue, and color. It should be neat and imaginative.
