Fishbone's Song

By Gary Paulsen

Synopsis

An orphan reflects on the lessons he was taught by the wise old man who raised him in this lyrical novel that reads like poetry from three-time Newbery winning author Gary Paulsen.

Deep in the woods, in a rustic cabin, lives an old man and the boy he's raised as his own. This sage old man has taught the boy the power of nature and how to live in it, and more importantly, to respect it. In Fishbone's Song, this boy reminisces about the magic of the man who raised him and the tales that he used to tell—all true, but different each time.

Chapter 1

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Fishbone's Song is an unnamed boy of either 10, 11, or 12 years of age (no one is sure). Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you've seen. What do you think made these characters so unforgettable?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

squall	looped	absolute	splinter
gulley	gar	crate	bulrush

1. We removed most of the bones from an ugly-looking _____ my sister caught.
2. It took several painful moments before Mother was able to remove the _____.
3. Whoever would have thought a baby pig could _____ so loudly.
4. We brought home our groceries in a large wooden _____.
5. Did you find that _____ down in Fiddler's Marsh?
6. Fishbone was _____ on moonshine.
7. We found the flock of wild turkeys down in the bottom of the _____.
8. The class knew they were hearing the _____ truth from the principal.

Questions

1. What is the setting of the story?

2. Summarize the two stories told by Fishbone regarding the origin of his name.

2.

3. The narrator relates four versions of how he came under the guardianship of Fishbone. Summarize the two versions which you found most fascinating.

2.

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column are found in Chapter 1.

Word	Anagram	Clue
smile		Wet mud.
worth		Toss; chuck.
shack		Cuts with rough or heavy blows.
board		Not at all narrow.
crate		Respond or behave in a particular way.
passed		Found in a deck.
sister		Withstand.

B. Assemble the word parts below into ten compound words found in this chapter.

rooms	break	board	humming	moon
bird	some	time	shoe	card
bone	fire	mush	tumble	horse
thing	down	mean	shine	fish

C. A Poem About a Stump.

The song at the end of the chapter is a fairly short free verse creation. The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain entitled The Stump, was written by the renowned poet, Atrocious Halitosis.

*There's a big old stump in my friend's back yard,
It glows in the dark when the night is starred.
It whistles a tune when we pass on by,
So we hurry it up and try not to cry.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - A - B - B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first chapter of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

D. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following is an example taken from Chapter One: ... to match the old boot tapping and sliding on the porch boards to make time...

How are the old boot personified in this example?

Create your own example of personification.

As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.

E. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. The following is an example taken from the Chapter One: ... and a soft shuffle sound like the boot was dancing...

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

A piercing scream.
The sound of a drum.
Your choice.

F. 5 Ws and an H.

Choose an event from this section that you thought was really important and/or exciting. Using facts that you gleaned from reading about this event, fill in the balloons below, summarizing what you learned.

WHO?

WHAT?

WHEN?

WHERE?

WHY?

HOW?

H. Caviar Words

The author of this novel is noted for his use of elegant, tasteful words. Someone once stated that some words have the sound of caviar (rich and elegant) and others are more are common (peanut butter words). With a colleague come up with 6 examples of each type of word. You may use any chapter of the novel to find these words.
