James and the Giant Peach

By Roald Dahl

Synopsis

When James accidentally drops some magic crystals by the old peach tree, strange things start to happen. The peach at the top of the tree begins to grow, and before long it’s as big as a house. Then James discovers a secret entranceway into the fruit, and when he crawls inside, he meets a bunch of oversized friends – Grasshopper, Centipede, Ladybug, and more. After years of feeling like an outsider in his aunts’ house, James has finally found a place where he belongs. With a snip of the stem, the peach starts rolling away, and the adventure begins. Author Biography

Roald Dahl

Few authors of children’s books have been as prolific or successful as Roald Dahl (1916-1990). His novels have been read and enjoyed by countless children the world over and include such classics as Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Danny the Champion of the World, James and the Giant Peach and Matilda. Shortly before his death, the top five selling children’s books in Great Britain were all authored by Dahl.

Born to Norwegian immigrants, Roald Dahl hailed from Llandaff, Wales. Despite losing his father when he was only four, Roald claimed to have had a most happy and eventful childhood. Although not a particularly good student, Roald did excel at athletics.

Dahl was married to the famous actress, Patricia Neal, for many years and they had five children together. The couple were, however, divorced after thirty years of marriage. Roald began his writing career as a short story writer, and didn’t pen his first children’s novel until 1961 – James and Giant Peach. This was followed by several bestsellers. Roald Dahl passed away in 1990 at the age of 74. In Great Britain the anniversary of Dahl's birthday on 13 September has become Roald Dahl Day.

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist of James and the Giant Peach is a very likeable boy, James Henry Trotter, who goes to live with his two aunts when his parents are killed. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Language Activities

A. South England

Although we are not told the exact location of these opening chapters, we are given some clues. James’s parents probably lived close to London, for they went shopping there. James moved to the south of England to live with his aunts, and from there could still see his parents’ house far in the distance. His aunts’ house, too, was fairly close to the ocean. It is therefore quite likely that he lived near the coast in one of the following counties: Sussex, Hampshire or Kent. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, investigate additional facts about one of these counties. Below record three fascinating facts from your research.

B. Alliteration

The author seems to enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. An example from Chapter Three is “... spoonfuls of sugar.”

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<th>The chirp of a sparrow</th>

<tr>
<td>The clink of a prisoner’s chains</td>

C. Who is going to help the poor old action word?

An adverb is a part of speech defined as a modifier (or helper) of a verb (usually an action word). Often an adverb will end in the letters _ly_ (i.e. _slowly_). Our novel features a good many creative adverbs.

1. He lived peacefully with his mother and father in a beautiful house beside the sea.
   → In this sentence, which verb does _peacefully_ modify? __________________

2. The lovely house by the seaside had to be sold immediately.
   → In this sentence, what verb does _immediately_ modify? __________________

3. Aunt Sponge and Aunt Spiker were sitting comfortably in deckchairs.
   → In this sentence the adverb __________ modifies the verb __________
D. 5 Ws and an H.

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene - or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first three chapters of James and the Giant Peach. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
