B. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first two chapters of Lassie Come-Home.

C. A Quatrain Poem Celebrating Tea.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain was written by the famous poet, Atrocious Halitosis. It is called, Confusion About Tea. (Which is understandable since the people of England often call their evening meal, “tea”.)

*When I did visit England, they asked me out for tea,
“Why I prefer my coffee black and tea just ain't for me.”
My host she shook her head and smiled and said so patiently,
“Our evening meal's a hearty deal, as soon you'll surely see.”*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - A - A - A Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AABB, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first two chapters of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

D. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following example is taken from Chapter 2: ... his heart still cried for Lassie.

Describe how Joe's heart is personified in this example.

Create your own example of personification.

As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.

E. Chapter One contains an example of an important literary device called foreshadowing. Foreshadowing is defined as a warning or indication of a future event. Chapter One ends with the statement, And sometimes there comes a time in a man's life when fate has beaten him so that he must bow his head and decide that he must eat his pride so that his family may eat bread.

1. What is the author hinting at in this statement?
2. Why might the author have included this statement?
