Lion: A Long Way Home

By Saroo Brierley

Synopsis

Can you imagine being lost and not finding your way home again? Saroo Brierley got lost on a train in India at the age of five. Not knowing the name of his family or where he was from, he survived for weeks on the streets of Kolkata, before being taken into an orphanage and adopted by a family in Australia.

Despite being happy in his new home, Saroo always wondered about his origins. He spent hours staring at the map of India on his bedroom wall. He pored over satellite images on Google Earth seeking out landmarks he recognized. And one day, after years of searching, he miraculously found what he was looking for.

Then he set off on a journey back to India to see if he could find his mother.

Author Biography Saroo Brierley

Saroo Brierley was born in an Indian town called Khandwa. In 1986, aged only 5, he lost all contact with his family when he was at a train station waiting for his brother who never returned. After living on the streets of Calcutta for 3 weeks by himself, he then got placed into a local orphanage where an Australian family adopted Saroo. He then grew up with his newly adopted parents in Hobart, Tasmania where he spent the next 25 years. After years trying to track down his old town through the labyrinth of railways lines on Google Earth and an image etched into his brain as a 5 year old, he finally found his town Khandwa on the map and traveled to India to try and find members of his family. In early 2012, after 25 years of separation, he reunited with his mother. [Courtesy of saroobrierley.com]

Chapters 1-2

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Lion: A Long Way Home is Saroo, who begins his story as a five-year old boy living in a small village in India. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an interesting protagonist? (One that is difficult to forget.)

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence. Careful – each word fits best in only one sentence.

affectionate	refined	illogical	forage
ravenous	affluent	subsist	malnourished

1. It seemed completely _____ to think that he could open the door without a key.
2. After being lost for three days in the woods, Kevin was _____ with hunger.
3. Saroo was soon forced to _____ for his food.
4. The ore from the mine must be _____ before being made into gold.
5. Saroo was able to _____ on less than three solid meals a day.
6. That poor little girl looks extremely _____.
7. Our puppy is quite outgoing and _____.
8. I think that my millionaire uncle was quite _____ even as a young man.

Questions

1. What is the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One?

2. Why were memories of his past so important to Saroo?

3. Do you think it was a good idea for Saroo's Australian parents to keep his past alive and to understand and share his culture with him? Why or why not?

4. Making a map with Mum triggered a flood of memories of his life in India. True or False

5. Investigate: Saroo remembers his family gathering around and listening to the harmonium. What is an harmonium?

6. Saroo's mother belonged to the _____ religion, whereas his father was a _____ . Saroo's brothers were named _____ and _____ . His sister's name was _____ .

7. What did Guddu and Saroo's mother do to earn money?

8. Describe one event in Saroo's life from the first two chapters which impressed you the most.

Language Activities

A. India

India is one of the world's more intriguing countries. Home to more than 1.2 billion people, it is the second most populous country on earth. Research four facts about this fascinating nation and record these facts below.

1.
3.
4.

B. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of Lion: A Long Way Home.

Word	Anagram	Clue
share		Perceives.
sleep		Removes the outer covering or skin from fruit.
times		Minute arachnids.
goats		Loose flowing outer garments.
waste		Perspire.
plate		Part of a flower.
parent		Snare.

Now find two additional words from the first two chapters which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

Word	Anagram	Clue

Good to Know ~ The Monsoon

The weather of the area of India in which Saroo lived was generally hot and dry except during the heavy rains of the monsoon, which started in May or June and finished in September or October. These rains were brought into India by the big seasonal winds blowing in from the Bay of Bengal and the Arabian Sea. The Indian Monsoon turns large parts of India from a kind of semi-desert into green lands. The Indian Monsoon affects the Indian subcontinent and surrounding regions including Nepal, whereas the East Asian Monsoon affects southern China, Taiwan, Korea and parts of Japan.

C. A Quatrain Poem About a Train.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. In honor of Saroo's love of trains, the famous poet, Atrocious Halitosis wrote the following quatrain. It is called, Why I Love Trains.

*A freight train is an awesome deal,
I'd rather watch than eat a meal.
It thunders by and rounds the bend,
And heaven knows when it will end.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - A - B - B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first two chapters of our book.

The Quatrain Poem Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme). Title: _____ <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

D. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's an example from Chapter 1: I picked up the new language quite quickly.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

A monsoon.
A speeding train.
Your choice.

E. Chapter One contains an example of an important literary device called foreshadowing. Foreshadowing is defined as a warning or indication of a future event. In Chapter One Saroo states, It was only later, when I began to open up to people about my experiences, that I saw in their eyes it was extraordinary.

1. Why do you think the author included this statement?

2. Find another example of foreshadowing from Chapter Two:

F. 5 Ws and an H.

Choose an event from this section that you thought was really important and/or exciting. Using facts that you gleaned from reading about this event, fill in the balloons below, summarizing what you learned.

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire book. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first two chapters of our book. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
