Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an interesting protagonist?

4. Describe your impression of Mrs. Starch. What was your reaction when Mrs. \ Starch assigned Smoke an essay on pimples? If you were Smoke's parent would you have done anything about this assignment? Why or why not?

10. Duane Scrod Sr.'s macaw is certainly a fascinating and talented pet. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet investigate this bird and record three intriguing facts about it below.

Language Activities

A. Exaggeration

Exaggeration in a literary device defined as a statement that represents something as better or worse than it really is. We find several examples of exaggeration in these chapters. One possible example is in Chapter One: ... she kept fifty-three snakes as pets, including a diamondback rattler.

Think of an exaggerated way of describing the following

A skunk's odor.
A hungry person's appetite.
Your choice.

B. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. We find an example of this in Chapter 1: ... her thin elbows were planted like fence posts...

In this example what two things are being compared?

--	--

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your imagination:

a) The sound of an alligator's jaws closing.

b) your own example

C. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates The Cat.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of the famous poem, My Cat, written by the famous poet, Atrocious Halitosis.

*You can call him a puma,
A panther or cat.
He don't come when you call him,
He's way beyond that.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - B - C - B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first two chapters of our novel (like teachers or zits).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).
