Snow Treasure

By Marie McSwigan

Synopsis

Peter Lundstrom never thought he would become a hero. But that bleak winter of 1940 was like no other. Nazi troops parachuted into Peter's tiny village and held it captive. Nobody thought they could be defeated – until Uncle Victor told Peter how the children of the village could fool the enemy.

It was a dangerous plan. Peter and his friends had to slip past Nazi guards with nine million dollars in gold hidden in their sleds. It meant risking their country's treasure – and their lives. [Courtesy of the publisher]

Chapters 1-3

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Snow Treasure is twelve year old Peter Lundstrom who lives in a small Norwegian town near the Arctic Circle. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

descent	fjord	pondered	defiant
subdued	navigator	precaution	relentless

1. Paul and his sister _____ for a moment what trail they should follow.
2. After being scolded by his teacher, Marcel was quite _____ for the rest of the day.
3. If the Nazis attack the village they are sure to be _____ until they are victorious.
4. The small ship sailed up the narrow _____ until arriving at my uncle's farm.
5. The mountain's steep _____ was most treacherous.
6. George can be very _____ to his teachers when he is in a bad mood.
7. As a _____, we will place pillows all around the baby's crib.
8. Despite his years of experience, the ship's _____ was unable to find his way to port.

Questions

1. Describe the setting of the story?

2. Investigate: Using resources in your school library or on the Internet find out the names of the three countries making up Scandinavia.

1.		2.		3.

3. Put on your detective hats. Do you think the author made a mistake? Late in Chapter One Peter and his friends get into a snowball fight. Using evidence from earlier in the chapter, why is this surprising?

4. Here's a math question for you. Mr. Lundstrom states that thirteen tons of gold is worth nine million dollars in the United States. Thirteen tons calculates to be 416,000 ounces which means that the price of gold at that time was $21.36. Today gold is worth about $1070.50 per ounce in the United States. Calculate what thirteen tons of gold would be worth today in the Answer Box below.

Answer Box

5. More than a hundred children attended Riswyk School. True or False

6. For what reason did Uncle Victor visit Peter's classroom?

7. What was the task that Peter thought Uncle Victor was going to ask him and the other children to do?

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first three chapters of Snow Treasure.

Word	Anagram	Clue
least		Stories.
mate		Squad; lineup.
drove		Rambled.
twist		Foolish people.
life		Folder.
snow		Possesses.
notices		Department; part.

Now find two additional words from the first three chapters which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

Word	Anagram	Clue

B. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates Courage.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of the famous poem, Defeat, written by Edgar Guest.

*No one is beat till he quits,
No one is through till he stops,
No matter how hard Failure hits,
No matter how often he drops.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - B - A - B. Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first three chapters of our novel (like courage).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

Bonus Question.

Why do you think the word Failure is capitalized in Line 3?

C. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's one such example: from Chapter Two: Thirteen tons!*

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

The sound of a snowmobile.
A hurricane!
Your choice.

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: “So you thought I was crazy!” Helga Taunted. “Crazy as a hare!”

What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) an incredible snowball fight

b) the sound of a sled going down a hill

c) your choice

E. 5 Ws and an H.

Choose an event from this section that you thought was really important and/or exciting. Using facts that you gleaned from reading about this event, fill in the balloons below, summarizing what you learned.

WHAT?

WHEN?

WHERE?

WHY?

HOW?

F. Caviar Words

The author of this novel is noted for her use of elegant, tasteful words. Someone once stated that some words have the sound of caviar (rich and elegant) and others are more common (peanut butter words). With a colleague come up with 6 examples of each type of word. You may use any chapter of the novel to find these words.
