Author Biography

Jerry Spinelli

Jerry Spinelli published his first book, Space Station Seventh Grade, in 1982, when he was forty-one years old. Since then he has written more than 20 novels, including Maniac McGee and Wringer (Newbery Medal, 1991). Before he became a full-time writer Jerry worked as a menswear editor for a department store magazine and served in the United States Naval Reserve. He wrote during his lunch breaks, after dinner, and on week-ends. Publishers rejected his first novels, but Jerry kept writing. Fifteen years later, his first book was accepted and published. Jerry still calls that book, Space Station Seventh Grade, his favorite of all his novels.

Jerry lives in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania – just ten miles from the town where he grew up – with his wife and fellow author, Eileen Spinelli. Together they have six children and sixteen grandchildren. You can read more about Jerry on his website www.jerryspinelli.com (Summary adapted from the publisher)

Name: _____

The Library Card

By Jerry Spinelli

Part One Chapters 1-3

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist of Part I of The Library Card is Mongoose, a rather troubled twelve-year-old boy who as the story opens, is busy shoplifting at the local Mini-Mart with his pal, Weasel. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

simmer	detention	careened	convertible
mangled	substitute	definitely	imaginary

1. The crowd watched in horror as the race car _____ into the grandstand.
2. I think it is cute that little Nicholas has an _____ friend.
3. John Simmons is _____ in the running to become our next mayor.
4. Trisha picked the _____ piece of paper up from the floor.
5. The 1966 hardtop _____ Mustang is a rare find indeed.
6. Grandma Gertie let the pot _____ on the stove for about twenty minutes.
7. The prisoner was kept in secure _____ for the night.
8. We had a _____ teacher for the entire week.

Questions

1. What is the setting at the beginning of Chapter One?

2. Why do you think Mongoose decided to steal the candy from the Mini-Mart?

3. Describe what Weasel did to be suspended from school for two days. Do you think this was a fair punishment? Why or why not?

4. What unusual item did Mongoose find in his pocket? What happened to it in Chapter Two?

5. Weasel dreamed of getting a convertible _____ car after leaving school, while Mongoose dreamed of getting a _____.

Good to Know

Weasel and Mongoose have expensive taste in automobiles. Purchased brand new, Mongoose’s choice is priced at between $53,000 and $100,000. Weasel’s choice was manufactured between 1967 and 2002. A convertible in mint condition goes for about $10,000.

6. If you were going to nickname yourself after the name of an animal, which animal would you choose? Why?

7. How does Chapter Three end on a rather mysterious note?

Language Activity

A. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's one such example: from Chapter Two "... cupcakes, coffee cakes..."

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

A gasp of surprise.
The sound of two bicycles colliding.
The yelp of a puppy.

B. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is “And lo and behold here was Weasel . . . straight as a drill sergeant...”

What two things are being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) a frog jumping onto a lily pad

--

b) a little girl tossing a horse shoe

C. What is Your First Impression?

Mongoose and Weasel certainly aren't your typical, everyday heroes. The novel opens with the boys shoplifting in a local store, and the section ends with them planning an act of vandalism with spray paint cans. What is your impression of the two boys thus far in the story? Predict what you think will happen to them as the novel continues.

D. Cinquain Poems

A Cinquain poem has five lines and most often does not rhyme. Write two Cinquain poems describing two of the characters from The Library Card using what you know about them from this novel. With your teacher's permission you may wish to collaborate with a colleague in the creation of these poems.

Line 1 is one word. Line 2 is two words. Line 3 is three words. Line 4 is four words. Line five is one word.	Santa Saint Nick Long white beard Christmas Eve present-giver Jolly

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first three chapters of The Library Card. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
