The Princess Bride

By William Goldman

Synopsis

A tale of true love and high adventure, pirates, princesses, giants, miracles, fencing, and a frightening assortment of wild beasts – The Princess Bride is a modern storytelling classic.

As Florin and Guilder teeter on the verge of war, the reluctant Princess Buttercup is devastated by the loss of her true love, kidnapped by a mercenary and his henchmen, rescued by a pirate, forced to marry Prince Humperdinck, and rescued once again by the very crew who absconded with her in the first place. In the course of this dazzling adventure, she'll meet Vizzini—the criminal philosopher who'll do anything for a bag of gold; Fezzik—the gentle giant; Inigo—the Spaniard whose steel thirsts for revenge; and Count Rugen—the evil mastermind behind it all. Foiling all their plans and jumping into their stories is Westley, Princess Buttercup's one true love and a very good friend of a very dangerous pirate. [Courtesy of the Publisher]

Chapters 1-4

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist in this section of the novel is Buttercup, a young farm girl, who although beautiful, cares little about her appearance or what others think of her. These seem to be unusual traits for a protagonist in such a story. What character traits are more common in the protagonists of most novels? Why did you select these particular traits?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

sublimity	antiquity	arbitrary	confidant	supplication
infatuation	undaunted	decreed	satiric	sophisticated

1. The Count was Prince Humperdinck’s only _____.
2. She could chide herself for her silly _____ with a dullard.
3. The Prince _____ that there were to be five levels.
4. It was the man, whose name is lost to _____, who mentioned it to the Count.
5. Guilder was, in fact, the far more _____ country.
6. All this was in a _____ vein since Morgenstern hated royalty.
7. She married soon thereafter, to the man who had accused her of _____.
8. Westley’s hands were tight together in almost a gesture of _____.
9. “Gracious, but it isn’t easy being tidy.” So _____, she set to work.
10. The king had a certain _____ quality that bothered many of the citizens.

Questions

1. Describe the setting of the story for most of Chapter One.

2. The topic of beauty dominates the first few pages of this novel. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross once wrote, People are like stained - glass windows. They sparkle and shine when the sun is out, but when the darkness sets in, their true beauty is revealed only if there is a light from within. How would you describe true beauty?

3. What excuse did the Count give for why they stopped at Buttercup's farm?

4. Describe the event that finally caused Buttercup to realize her true feelings for Westley.

5. Record one remark from this section that you found especially humorous.

6. What was Westley's immediate response to Buttercup's "I love you" statement?

7. Describe Westley's long-term plans. What was Buttercup's response to this?

8. How did they know that Westley was dead and not simply captured?

9. After reading the title to Chapter 2, who might you have expected the chapter to be about? Why?

10. Describe your impression of Prince Humperdinck.

11. What ruined Princess Noreena's chances for marrying Humperdinck?

12. How did Humperdinck finally persuade Buttercup to marry him?

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

- a) read the clue in the right-hand column.
- b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in our novel.

Word	Anagram	Clue
ulcer		Willfully causing pain in others.
lived		Beelzebub.
horse		Seaside.
present		Feel remorse.
slime		Fruits.
finest		Overrun; spread through.
credit		Undeviating.

B. Cliffhanger

Chapter One contains an important literary device called a cliffhanger. A cliffhanger usually occurs at the end of a chapter when the author leaves the reader in suspense. How is this true in Chapter One? What do you make of this mysterious conclusion?

C. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. Here's an example taken from Chapter 3: Most of the candles lost their flames and toppled.

Describe how the candles are personified in this example.

Create your own example of personification.

If you come across another example of personification, return to this question and enter it below.

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter 2 is: The orangutan fell like a rag doll.

What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) an exciting swordfight

b) a dragon

E. The Diamante Poem.

There are many forms of poetry available to the aspiring poet other than the rhyming poem. One of the forms of poetry that is the most fun to tackle is the Diamante poem.

The Diamante Poem

The diamante poem has a distinct form and a distinct shape. Directions for creating one is as follows:

Line 1 - Noun or subject - one word.

Line 2 - Two adjectives that describe Line 1.

Line 3 - Three 'ing words that describe line 1 (i.e. playing).

Line 4 - Four nouns - the first two are connected with Line 1, the last two are connected with Line 7.

Line 5 - Three 'ing words that describe Line 7.

Line 6 - Two adjectives that describe Line 7.

Line 7 - One noun synonym for the subject.

Following the above instructions, try your hand at writing a diamante poem using an idea, event or character from the first four chapters as your inspiration.
