Author Biography

Richard Peck

Richard Peck was born and brought up in Decatur, Illinois, about a three-hour car ride from Chicago. His first writing job was in the United States army in Germany where he was assigned the job of ghost-writing sermons for chaplains. His four most recent novels are set in the part of the world that the author most likes to celebrate. In Mr. Peck's own words: "Strays Like Us is a story about a girl being fostered in one of those small, old-fashioned towns where it's hard to be a stranger. A Long Way From Chicago and A Year Down Yonder, two books that have changed my life, are set in the farm town where my father grew up. Grandma Dowdel's house is the house where my grandmother lived: a tall jigsaw gothic with lighting rods. My newest novel is Fair Weather in which three farm kids see the future unfolding before them at the Chicago World's Fair of 1893.

Richard Peck passed away in 2018 in New York City after a long battle with cancer.

Language Activities

A. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. We find an example of this in Chapter One: . . . a tiny face wrinkled like a walnut . . .

In this example what two things are being compared?

--	--

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your imagination:

a) The sound of a Model T touring car backfiring

b) your own example

B. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. In this section of the novel the author writes, ... they were caught in the grip of this place. They felt the weight of its history, and mystery. In this example the place takes on human characteristics by possessing a grip and it actually feels that the place is actually bearing its weight down on them.

a) Why do you think personification is a literary device used by many authors?

b) Create your own example of personification.

C. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word PAN can also form the word NAP. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters.

Each of the words in the left-hand column are found in this section of our novel.

Word	Anagram	Clue
reason		A married Spanish woman.
sharp		Musical instruments.
strap		Leaves.
tower		Inscribed.
silent		Join up.
parted		Leave

D. What Do You Know About the Model-T Touring Car?

Howard takes a rather long trip in a car which we would consider very primitive – a Ford Model-T touring car. At the time of the events described in this novel, the car had only been around for less than a generation, so very few people could afford one. The first Model A, for instance, was manufactured in 1903. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, research three fascinating facts about Ford Model-T and record this information below.

F. An Acrostic Poem

There are many forms of poetry available to the aspiring poet other than the rhyming poem. An ACROSTIC poem is one example. In an acrostic poem the first letters of each line are aligned vertically to form a word. The word often is the subject of the poem. Here is an example written by the acclaimed poet, Atrocious Halitosis:

The Firefly

Freaky-looking Itches me when I touch
Restless at night
Early or late Fearless Little Yellowfly

The Acrostic Poem

Now create your own Acrostic Poem on a subject featured in this novel. Your poem must have at least four lines (and doesn't need to rhyme).
