Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one chapter of the novel and is comprised of the following activities:

1. Before You Read
2. Vocabulary Building
3. Comprehension Questions
4. Language and Extension Activities

A portfolio cover (page 7) as well as a Checklist (page 6) are included so that students may keep track of their completed work.

Every activity need not be completed by all students.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters ... respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include loyalty, balloons and balloon travel, scientific inventions of the late 1800s, the lure of wealth, the importance of community, cooperation, creativity, and acceptance of others.

Chapter 1 – Professor Sherman's Incredible Loyalty

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of The Twenty-One Balloons is not your typical protagonist, but Professor William Waterman Sherman, who suddenly finds himself the center of world-wide attention. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read. Who would you say is your most favorite character ever? What made you select this character?

Language Activities

A. Balloons

It already seems evident that balloons are going to play an important part in this novel. What, though, do you really know about this everyday item which we mostly take for granted? Did you know, for instance, that the first rubber balloon was made by the scientist, Michael Faraday in 1824? Did you know that before this they were made from dried animal bladders? Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, research three additional facts about balloons and record these points below.

|   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 |  |
| 2 |  |
| 3 |  |

B. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of The Twenty-One Balloons.

| Word    | Anagram | Clue                           |
|---------|---------|--------------------------------|
| wired   |         | Uncanny.                       |
| weather |         | A garland or decoration.       |
| wrote   |         | A tall, narrow building.       |
| report  |         | You may carry my luggage.      |
| worse   |         | A distributor of seeds.        |
| later   |         | Wide awake.                    |
| tender  |         | Paid someone to use something. |

Now find two additional words from the first chapter which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

| Word | Anagram | Clue |
|------|---------|------|
|      |         |      |
|      |         |      |

C. Next to each pair of words indicate whether each is an example of a Synonym (S), Antonym (A), or Homophone (H).

|   |                           |  |    |                           |  |
|---|---------------------------|--|----|---------------------------|--|
| 1 | approach - depart         |  | 6  | flotsam - debris          |  |
| 2 | withhold - donate         |  | 7  | fashionable - antiquated  |  |
| 3 | medicine - pharmaceutical |  | 8  | exhaustion - debilitation |  |
| 4 | persuade - coax           |  | 9  | course - coarse           |  |
| 5 | healed - heeled           |  | 10 | bestow - deprive          |  |

D. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates Balloons.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of the famous poem, My Balloon, written by the renowned poet, Atrocious Halitosis.

*For my birthday I got a red balloon,
As big as my daddy's truck.
I attached it to my sister's cat,
Now its halfway to the moon.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – B – C – A. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first chapter of our novel (like balloons, ships or explorers).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

E. Cliffhanger

Chapter One contains an important literary device called a cliffhanger. A cliffhanger usually occurs at the end of a chapter when the author leaves the reader in suspense. How is this true in Chapter One? Why do you think the author ended the chapter this way?

|--|

F. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's one such example: from Chapter One: They sent a reporter to the Murray Hill Hotel . . .

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

|   |  |
|---|--|
| The popping of a balloon.               |  |
|   |  |
| A ship's whistle as it comes into port. |  |
|   |  |
| Your choice.                            |  |
|   |  |

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A story-board can tell the story of only one scene - or the entire novel. Complete the story-board below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
