Synopsis

In an unnamed Third World country, in the not-so-distant future, three “dumpsite boys” make a living picking through the mountains of garbage on the outskirts of a city.

One unlucky-lucky day, Raphael finds something very special and very mysterious. So mysterious that he decides to keep it, even when the city police offer a handsome reward for its return. That decision brings with it terrifying consequences, and soon the dumpsite boys must use all of their cunning and courage to stay ahead of their pursuers. It’s up to Raphael, Gardo, and Rat—boys who have no education, no parents, no homes, and no money—to solve the mystery and right a terrible wrong.

Andy Mulligan has written a powerful story about unthinkable poverty—and the kind of hope and determination that can transcend it. With twists and turns, unrelenting action, and deep, raw emotion, Trash is a heart-pounding, breath-holding novel. [Courtesy of the Publisher - David Fickling Books]

PART 1. Chapters 1-3

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main characters of Trash is a 14-year-old Raphael Fernández who lives in Behala, an enormous garbage dump where he makes his living finding reusable refuse. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. Who would you say is your most favorite character ever? What made you select this person?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

complicated	stuppa	occasional	pesos
zucchini	calculation	pallet	penknife

1. The workers loaded the _____ with layer after layer of large metal sheets.
2. Mrs. Hardy, our English teacher assigned us a very _____ math problem.
3. Jennifer used a _____ to open the back of her wristwatch.
4. After doing a _____ of the room’s area, we decided to go elsewhere.
5. _____ is a word for human muck.
6. Except for an _____ cough, the classroom was absolutely silent.
7. Raphael was overjoyed when he found an uneaten _____ in a plastic bag.
8. On a good day, Raphael would make 200 _____. On a bad day maybe fifty.

Questions

1. Describe the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One.

2. What does Raphael compare the size of the Behala to?

3. List five of the items found in the dumpsite Raphael lists that can be sold.

4. How are the personalities of Raphael and Gardo different?

5. Describe what was in the small leather bag Raphael found.

6. Read once again the last three sentences in Chapter Two. What was there about the key that most intrigued Raphael?

7. What was the reason given by the police for the bag being so important?

8. How did Raphael's auntie almost ruin his plans? How did he talk his way out of trouble?

9. What were Raphael's motives for not turning the bag over to the police? What do you think this says about his personality/character?

10. At the end of Chapter 3, the boys wonder what Jose Angelico did. What do you think he did to get the police so interested in retrieving this bag?

Language Activities

A. Next to each pair of words indicate whether each is an example of a Synonym (S), Antonym (A), or Homophone (H).

1	friend - foe		6	serious - earnest
2	complicated - intricate		7	foreigner - alien
3	valuable - substandard		8	marsh - slough
4	eight - ate		9	way - weigh
5	trust - confide		10	dangerous - innocuous

B. Cliffhanger

Chapter 3 ends in a cliffhanger. (The author leaves the reader in suspense at the end of a chapter.) How might the concision to Chapter 3 qualify as a cliffhanger? Why do you think the author ended the chapter this way?

C. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following is an example taken from Chapter One: ... a dead tyre holds down the roof of your house.

Describe how the tyre is personified in this example.

Create your own example of personification.

As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.

D. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates Mysteries.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of the famous poem, Mystery Lover, written by the renowned poet, Atrocious Halitosis.

*I loves a mystery, that's for sure,
But I can't wait for the end.
So I go right to the final page,
So that I might comprehend.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - B - C - B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the topics established in the first few chapters of our novel (like garbage or mysteries).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

E. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: The trash is soft, and our feet are hard as hooves.

What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) the smell of a garbage dump on a hot summer day

b) a police siren

F. Who is going to help the poor old action word?

An adverb is a part of speech defined as a modifier (or helper) of a verb (usually an action word). Often an adverb will end in the letters ly (i.e. slowly). Our novel features a good many creative adverbs.

1. ... to the one who actually puts it in my hand.

→ In this sentence, which verb does actually modify? _____

2. The cop in charge spoke loudly.

→ In this sentence, what verb does loudly modify? _____

3. He rubbed my ear gently, like I was a kid.

→ In this sentence the adverb _____ modifies the verb _____

G. 5 Ws and an H.
