Synopsis

Young Minli lives in the Valley of Fruitless Mountain, where she and her parents spend their days working hard in the fields. At night, Minli listens to her father’s tales about the Old Man of the Moon, who knows the answers to everything. Minli sets out on a quest to find the Old Man of the Moon – he will know how she can bring good fortune to her family. Along the way, she meets many magical friends, including a talking fish, a powerful king, and a dragon who can't fly!  [Courtesy of The Publisher]

Where the Mountain Meets the Moon was a Newbery Honor Book

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first four chapters of Where the Mountain Meets the Moon.

Good to Know ~ Goldfish

A small member of the carp family, the goldfish was one of the earliest fish to be domesticated. It is thought that the goldfish was first domesticated in China more than one thousand years ago. Today it is one of the most commonly kept aquarium fish. They vary greatly in size and color, and can be found in various combinations of white, yellow, orange, red, brown and black.

B. A Poem About a Dragon.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain entitled My Pet Dragon, was written by the humorous poet, Atrocious Halitosis.

A dragon makes a dandy pet
It don't shed and it don't sweat.
It lazes round the house all day
And doesn't have a lot to say.

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of  A – A – B – B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first four chapters of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

C. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: ... his black eyes sparkled like raindrops in the sun....

What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) the speed of a race horse

b) the beauty of the northern lights

c) your choice

D. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here are two such examples: from Chapter Two: ... seeing her parents patiently working, backs bent...

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>

HOW?
Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A story-board can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the story-board below illustrating the events described in the first four chapters of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
